Lauren Taylor

Lauren grew up in Port Moody, BC, Canada and began dancing at age 3 at the Caulfield School of Dance under the direction of Cori Caulfield. She trained in multiple disciplines and quickly developed an interest as a teenager in choreography and teaching. Lauren has been teaching since 2007 and is an established teacher and choreographer in the Greater Vancouver area in a variety of different styles including AcroDance, Jazz/Lyrical, Street Jazz/Jazz Funk, and Contemporary. She is a certified AcroDance instructor with Acrobatic Arts and hold accreditation with multiple training courses such as the Professional Adjudicators Alliance and Alixa Flexibility. In addition to teaching, Lauren is an Adjudicator across Canada and more recently in the United Kingdom. Lauren has recently moved back from living in London where she has resided for the past 18 months enjoying teaching, adjudicating and travelling in Europe! Lauren believes that a teacher should never stop being a student. She continues to train when she can and frequents workshops, conferences, and certifications to further her education. Lauren has a passion for teaching and thrives on watching her students grow. She hopes that she can pass along her love of this art to inspire.

Sherrie's dance journey began in Alberta, training in her family owned studio. Now based in Vancouver, BC, with 40 years as a dance educator and 30 years as an adjudicator, Sherrie continues to make an impact on studios and companies throughout Canada, the U.S, and Europe. Sherrie is a certified adjudicator with the Canadian Dance Leadership Institute, and a certified member of the Professional Adjudicators Alliance. Sherrie holds qualifications with the RAD Ballet, ADAPT Jazz & Tap, and CDTA AcroDance. She furthered her education at Grant MacEwan College Dance Arts Program, where she studied modern, contemporary dance, kinesiology, anatomy, and music history.

Professional dance credits: principal dancer with Canadian renowned Decidedly Jazz Dance Company. She has also worked with D' Hershey Modern Company, and Stone Soup Collective Contemporary Company, World of Dance Congress, Farrington Productions Las Vegas & Japan, dance documentary "No Small Feats" with DJD and featured singer/dancer in "The Mix" revue show Macau, China.

Choreography credits: CTV's "So You Think You Can Dance" assistant choreographer to Sean Cheesman (Canadian season).

Michael Jackson VH1 film "Man in the Mirror", Kimberly Wyatt (Pussycat dolls) VH1 Magic special, The Black Eyed Peas,(CFL) halftime show, Radio Disney and The Gemini Awards to name a few.

Professional theatrical credits: "The Boyfriend," "The Music Man," and "42nd Street." Choreography for Theatre: "Joseph and the Technicolor DreamCoat", "Aladdin", "Evangeline", "Shakespeare in the Park" for Mount Royal Theatre Arts. "The Cherry Orchard" with United Theatre Players, "How To Succeed in Business" and "Damn Yankees" with Front Row Centre Players. Directed productions for BC Children's Theatre "Cinderella" and "Jungle Book", Sherrie has earned numerous accolades, including the International Choreography Award, representing Canada.

Recently, she was featured on the podcast "Voice of the Artist" Navigating the complex world of Choreography, as well as Dancing Through it (YouTube), hosted by Leslie Kuny Sherrie is committed to nurturing talent and sparking creativity with her motto: "Aspire to Inspire." She challenges all the dancers to share their art with enthusiasm and authenticity.
